

An Illustrated History of Hip Joint Surgery from Hippocrates to Charnley

John Kirkup

This book presents the long history of hip joint disability based on published evidence from the Hippocratic writings of the 4th century BC to the 21st century AD. Recognising this is a selective and summarised account of the story so far, it is hoped it will contribute to a more informed interpretation of the progression of hip surgery.

An Illustrated History of Hip Joint Surgery £25 $40 €30

Method of payment:

Cheque (All cheques must be payable to 'The British Editorial Society of Bone & Joint Surgery' in pounds Sterling, American dollars or Euros.)

Visa Mastercard American Express Maestro

Number:

Expiry: Card security code (3 digits; 4 for AMEX):

Our VAT no. GB 232423501.

Please supply your UK/EC VAT registration number, if appropriate:

Signature.....

Full name

Delivery & Billing Address

.....

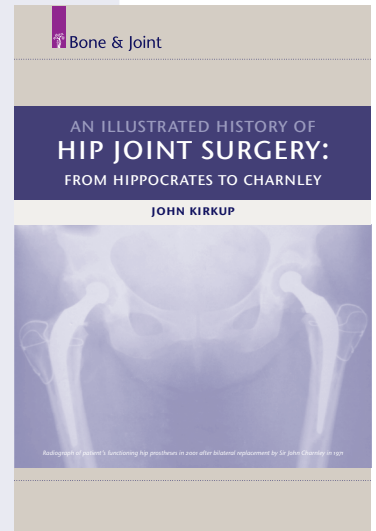

Country.....Post code/ZIP

Email

Telephone

Please keep me informed by email about relevant news and special offers from Bone & Joint.

We do not sell any of your personal information to third parties and you can unsubscribe from this list at any time by emailing: unsubscribe@boneandjoint.org.uk.

Please complete and return this form to

Post: Bone & Joint, 22 Buckingham Street, London, WC2N 6ET, UK.

Fax: +44 (0)20 7451 0929. Online: www.boneandjoint.org.uk

For any queries please contact our subscriptions department at: subs@boneandjoint.org.uk

